Kapitel 5: Wishing for wings

I wish someday I will grow wings so I can fly away from all these scary things!
Scary 'cause I don't know why with 'friends' I always climb so high and then fall down from the sky because the person i did trust didn't like me just as much

I trusted the wrong person again and now i'm picking up the remains of my heart again

My heart was crushed so easily sometimes I wish to throw it away to end the pain in one rash swish that's often all that I do wish.

But all I can do is keep the emotions at bay I would really like to scream out loud to cry all my pain and sorrow out to make it all go away so that someday I can say:

I'm Happy!

But who knows if this time will ever come and if I'll be able to fight the storm...
